OUR COUNCIL:

Councillors and their behaviour and attitude

- Councillors, as representatives of pupils of the school agree to maintain the highest standards of behaviour

- The councillors will treat with politeness any visitors to the meeting

- Pupils can stand for election to be councillors as often as they want while they are part of the school

Voting and selection procedures

- A councillor may be voted off the council if their behaviour in school becomes a problem
- If a vote is a tie, the chairperson will have the deciding vote.
- All decisions taken at school council meetings shall be by show of hands with votes for and against recorded.
- The secretary will be selected by the chairperson.
- The link teacher or headteacher can vote in school council meetings.
- The chairperson will be decided by the link teacher or headteacher.

Structures and procedures at school council meetings

- Meetings will only occur when the link teacher or headteacher is present.
- The council will invite a wide range of people to meetings to help the councillors make the best decisions.
- The link teacher or headteacher will have the right to prevent the school council making a decision that s/he considers is not the responsibility of the council or within its powers to decide.

- Minutes will be taken at every council meeting and every decision made will be carefully written down.
- School council meetings will be held whenever time permits
- The council must make sure that all people likely to be affected by a decision are informed first and have a chance to comment.
- The link teacher or headteacher will have the right to prevent the school council discussing any issues that s/he believes the council do not have the right to discuss or the power to do anything about.
- The chairperson is in charge of the school council meeting and has the right to silence people or remove them from the meeting if they are behaving badly.
- The agenda will be decided at the meeting by all the councillors.

Promoting the school council: giving the school community a voice

- The school council will have a noticeboard in a prominent place in the school.
- There will be a school council suggestion box near the front entrance of the school for anyone, including parents and visitors to the school, to make comments to the school council.
- There will be a school council suggestion box in each classroom for children to make comments to their councillors.

School council rights and responsibilities

- The council will have a responsibility to help the school become more environmentally friendly.

- The council fully supports the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child and will always try to address issues which threaten or violate these rights.

- All members of the school will be informed of the decision the council has taken.

- The council will have the responsibility to think of ways to help the local community become a safer, healthier and more peaceful place to live in.
